Fight against the COVID-19 epidemic: at CINL, face-to-face interviews are suspended but our service continues

In the context of the fight against the Covid-19 epidemic and given the instructions imposed by the authorities, the CINL is obliged to suspend until further notice all face-to-face talks and this in all its branches: Namur, Libramont, Arlon, Marche-en-Famenne and Vielsalm.

Face-to-face socio-legal and psychological consultations are therefore all cancelled.

However, our service remains accessible by email and telephone, or even by video conference.
